Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukah, Happy New Year, and any other holidays I might not have covered. Believe it or not, we are in the last month of 2017.

The November luncheon featured delicious turkey with all the trimmings. And, Casa de Flores provided a tasty turkey casserole, as well as all your wonderful dishes.

The attendance drawing went unclaimed again, as Kat Kennedy was not present. This month the pot will be $150. Karen Rivas took home the 50-50 amount of $75. Congratulations to Karen.

Entertainers Roger and Ralph played some sing-a-long tunes for us. In December, Judith and the Jazz Krewe return for our holiday celebration. Please remember that noise carries in the tent and to use your "inside" voices.

The annual Cayucos Christmas tree lighting will take place at 5:00 p.m. on December 3 at the corner of Ocean Avenue and D Street, and the 9th Annual Christmas in Cayucos takes place the evening of December 9. The Carlin Soulee Annual Polar Bear Dip will take place at noon on January 1, New Year's Day.

Annual Seniors club dues must be paid by January 31st in order to be in the directory, receive the bulletin, and to be eligible for the attendance drawing. Dues are $10 annually, or you can pay a one-time $100 lifetime and receive a lifetime badge.

See you December 13 at 12:00 noon.

A Message from Your Vice-President
Jerry Dobyms

Here we are in December, the last month of the year. It's time for family and friends to enjoy Christmas and celebrate this great holiday and remember why we celebrate it. It is the time to remember December 25th as not just another holiday but the birth of Jesus.

Coming Saturday December 9th from 5 pm -9 pm is Christmas in downtown Cayucos. This is fun for the whole family as our stores are open late and cider, cookies and a lot of other treats are available courtesy of our retailers.

I want to thank Ralph and Roger, our entertainers for the November potluck. They handed out some sheet music with lyrics for the tunes they performed and many of us sang along. I really liked California Girls, since I married one. We will have them back again, as everyone seemed to enjoy them.

I want to thank Leonard Cicerello, Ken Kaberline and the kitchen crew and servers for a great Thanksgiving meal. Well done everyone. We always enjoy the turkey with all of the trimmings. Karen Rivas was our 50/50 winner. Karen won $75. Congratulations! Karen Kat Kennedy's name was drawn for the attendance of $125, but she was not in attendance. Sorry Kat. Next month the attendance drawing will be $150.

I want everyone to enjoy Christmas and celebrate with family and friends. Merry Christmas to all and hope to see everyone at our next potluck Wednesday December 13th.

A Little Humor, The Wealthy Man

When John learned that he was going to inherit a fortune when his sickly father died, he decided that he needed a woman to enjoy it with.

One evening he went to a singles bar where he spotted the most beautiful woman he had ever seen. Her natural beauty took his breath away.

"I may look like just an ordinary man," he said as he walked up to her, "but in just a week or two, my father will die, and I will inherit 20 million dollars."

Impressed, the woman went home with him that evening and, three days later she became his stepmother.

Can Crushers

Thrift Store News from Carla

It is Christmas at the Senior Center. All of the lovely things that have been donated will go out on November 26th. We have some really nice items. Besides large ornaments, there is also a six feet tall artificial Christmas tree. There is even a giant décor wreath.

For clothing, we have beautiful sweaters and tops for Christmas. For decorations, we have nice table clothes, runners, and napkins to set off your table. We are 18 volunteers strong that make it all happen. Leonard and I make it 20. I am so proud of everyone who helps us, and I am so glad to make a difference with our lovely store. We have been called the "department store" of Cayucos. There will be two new faces for Christmas, Kim and Mary, who will be helping customers, wrapping items, and keeping the shop tidy. Thank you to all who make our store a safe, clean place to shop.

Merry Christmas to all of you. The upcoming holiday season is an opportunity to help people who appreciate being helped. Please bring any extra plastic bags you may have to the thrift store to help us bag Christmas purchases.

See you around town,

Carla

CAYUCOS HISTORY

For the next several months, we will reprint excerpts from a compendium of Cayucos history called “Cayucos by the Sea”. It was written by Friends of the Cayucos Library and it was published in 2000. Edited by Leonard Cicerello.

PART ONE

Prior to the white man’s entry, it is speculated that Native Americans had hunting parties and also situated seasonal camps along the Cayucos coast.

The earliest documented historical beginnings of Cayucos trace back to thriving ranches which preceded any organized settlements. Names of notable families like Tognazzini, Donati, Righetti, and Muscio dotted the landscape.

Around 1855, a teacher by the name of John Baines realized the potential of the area now defined as Cayucos. He was soon joined by George Stone. Together they founded the community of Old Creek at the “crossroads of commerce” connecting Paso Robles with the coast. The site was situated on a thirty acre parcel which today accommodates the Whale Rock Terrace senior mobile home park.

That the settlement was important for the entire area can be justified by the services it provided. For example, it had the first post office; it was the first polling place for the greater general area; it included a general merchandise store, saloon, eating place, and even lodged overnight travelers as a stage coach stop. The settlement met the needs of ranchers and travelers for a little more than two decades.

As legend goes, a man by the name of James Cass was carrying a shipment by horse and wagon from San Luis Obispo to San Simeon in 1867 and stopped to rest at Cayucos Creek. His keen businessman’s insight soon discerned that the site would make an ideal port from which to ship and receive goods.
