

Cayucos Senior Center (CSC) and Thrift Shop

200 South Ocean Avenue, Cayucos, CA 93430 - cayucosseniors.org

Open Mondays through Saturdays 10am to 4pm

From the Desk of President Adrian Hurtado

Happy Valentine's Day. Our luncheon this month actually falls on Valentine's Day.

The January luncheon featured Italian meatloaf and macaroni and cheese. Both were very tasty. Unfortunately, we were not able to sample the fare from Casa de Flores, since their van broke down and they were unable to transport any residents to our monthly gathering.

The attendance prize of $175 was unclaimed, as Butch Rambaud was not present. This month the pot will be $200. New member, Suzanne King, took home the 50/50 prize of $63. Good job.

Dave Molloy provided guitar tunes and vocals, especially country western, featuring some Johnny Cash and Willie Nelson, among others.

Carla Cicerello has stepped down from managing the center thrift shop, and Loretta Scholfield has stepped in temporarily until we find a replacement. If you have any interest in managing the thrift shop, please let the center receptionist know and the word will be passed on.

The annual Cayucos School/Lions Flag Day event will be held at the school on Thursday, February 15 at 10:30 a.m. in the auditorium. All are encouraged to attend. On Sunday, February 18th, the Cayucos Lions and Lioness will present their annual Wine & Food Gala in the tent from 4-7 p.m.

See you February 14, at 12:00 noon.

Adrian

A Message from Your Vice-President
Jerry Dobyms

Welcome to February everyone. We have had a little rain, but we need more. You guys out there, time to treat your special lady to some flowers and a nice evening out for Valentine's Day. I always got my Suzi flowers and took her to a nice dinner.

Coming up in our little town this month is Flag Day at Cayucos Elementary School starting at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, February 15th in the school gymnasium. The children really enjoy this special day. Also, on Sunday, February 18th is the Wine & Food Gala in the Vets Hall tent. The hours are from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. This a great fundraiser for Cayucos graduating senior going to Morro Bay High or Coast Union High in Cambria.

We had Dave Molloy for our entertainment. He did some country-western songs that everyone enjoyed. I have a new singer this month, Nathan Clay. He sing Blues, Motown, and Classic Rock. I found him in Santa Maria for my Suzi's memorial cruise and lunch. He is great.

Thank you to Leonard, Ken, Jim, and John, the servers, and the bartenders for a great potluck last month.

Susan King won the 50/50 drawing of $63. Congratulations to you Susan. Butch Rambaud's name was drawn for the attendance amount of $175. Butch was not present. Sorry Butch. Next month's attendance drawing will be $200.

Jerry

A Little Humor, Rancher John

Old rancher John farmed a small ranch in Montana. The Montana Wage and Hour Department claimed he was not paying proper wages to his workers and sent an agent to interview him.

"I need a list of your employees and how much you pay them," demanded the agent.

"Well," replied old John, "There is my ranch hand who has been with me for three years. I pay him $600 a week plus free room and board. The cook has been here for 18 months, and I pay her $500 a week, plus free room and board. Then there is the halfwit who works about 18 hours a day and does about 90% of all the work around here. He makes about $10 a week, pays his own room and board, and I buy him a bottle of bourbon every Saturday night."

"That is the guy I want to speak with, the halfwit," insists the agent.

"That would be me," replies old John.

Cayucos History, Part 3

Although James Cass, an Englishman born in 1824, did not arrive in Cayucos until the age of 43, the vision, adaptability, and judgment he pursued after his arrival made him the "Founding Father of Cayucos". It happened that, while looking for a place to relocate from Northern California, he hauled lumber from San Luis Obispo to San Simeon and stopped here in 1867.

Prior to coming here, he had sailed on ships, mined in the Gold Country, operated a store, raised hogs, and managed farms.

His discernment to envision Cayucos as a seaport and make it into a commercial success brought a dimension of importance and development to the town which, in turn, gave Cass status and earned eminence among early leaders who put their imprint on Cayucos. Cass lived to the age of 92, which he reached in 1917.

Angus McPherson Hardie moved to the area of Cayucos in 1867 and acquired 380 acres to start a dairy ranch. His wife, Agnes, accompanied him and eventually they had seven children. A.M. Hardie was active in Republican Party politics and was elected San Luis Obispo County Assessor in 1879. His legacy to Cayucos thrives today as Hardie Park, where residents and visitors picnic, play, and relax and enjoy the facilities.

Fascinating encounter by Leonard Cicerello — Before I moved to Cayucos full time, four years ago, I was calling on a new account in North Highlands, east of Sacramento, to sell my lovely Lodi olive oil. Part of the conversation led to my status of trying to sell my wine and olive oil distribution business so that I could retire and move from Lodi.

My soon to be customer, Dimitrius, asked to where I was moving. I told him to the Central Coast. He wanted to know specifically, and when I told him "Cayucos", lightning flashed. He said, "I have to take you next door to meet Mike." Upon entering Mike's barbeque store, Dimitrius blurted out, "Mike, this is Leonard and he is moving to Cayucos."

Mike quickly guided me to his counter with a computer screen. Mike told me to get ready and watch the screen. Instantly, slide after slide of Cayucos came into focus. His story is that Mr. Angus McPherson Hardie was his great, great, grandfather for whom Hardie Park is named.
