From the Desk of President Adrian Hurtado

Happy May Day and Happy Mother's Day. The rains have provided an abundance of green hills and golden poppies to make May a beautiful and colorful month. In April, our resident chefs served up a very tasty ham and potato lunch and Casa de Flo-res provided a scrumptious giant chicken pot pie and pineapple upside down cake dessert.

Julie Beaver entertained us with the violin, the guitar, and her beautiful soprano voice. I hope she will consider coming back soon. This month, the Mystery Brothers, Jim Conroy and Bruck Beck will be here.

Part time visitor Richard Rezendes' name was drawn for the $250 attendance prize, but this was not the part time that he is here. The May prize grows to $275. Margaret Carlson won the 50/50 prize of $85. Congratulations Margaret.

The Past Presidents' and Volunteers' prime rib luncheon is this month on May 24 at 12:00 in the tent. Sign up in the Center office by May 19. Non-invitees can attend for a mere $15.

May abounds with events and holidays:

- May 1, May Day
- May 5, Cinco de Mayo
- May 6, Antique Street Fair
- May 13, Mother's Day
- May 28, Memorial Day and Lost at Sea Memorial
- Memorial Day Weekend, Antique Gas & Steam Engine Show

Have a great month and see you May 9 in the Vets tent at 12:00 noon.

Adrian

Last Table - Table 8 (Ann Fitzgerald, Brad Bates, Phyllis Rosenfeld, Carol Staib, Maggie Carlson, Louise Topper, and Lois Londean) - first to be served May.

A Message from Your Vice-President Jerry Dobyms

It's May already and your First Vice President's birthday month. I don't feel any older except when I play golf. My game is old and tired. When I dance with my girl friend I feel younger. Enough about me. It's been a little windy lately and we got a little rain, which we need. The hills are beautiful and green and the wild flowers are spectacular. What a great time of year.

I want to thank the kitchen crew for another great meal of ham and scalloped potatoes everything was yummy as usual. I want to thank Karen Rivas and Janet Arnold for tending bar. Great job everyone.

We had Julie Beaver for our entertainment. She has a great voice and can play the violin so well. Julie is great to listen to. We will have her back again. This month our entertainment will be Jim Conroy and Bruce Beck of the Mystery Brothers. Bruce Beck tells me they have some new songs to do for us. It is amazing to me that we have such a great pool of singers and musicians in the area. I will be going to Harmony Cellars Winery this summer to find some more entertainers for our potluck and general meetings.

The 50/50 drawing was won by Margaret Carlson. Margaret won $85. Congratulations Margaret. Richard Rezendes name was pulled for the attendance drawing of $250. Richard was not in attendance. Sorry Richard. This month's drawing will be $275.

The month of May is a big start to my favorite time of year, car show season. The Morro Bay show will be May 3rd-6th. Come out if you can to see some beautiful classic cars and my Green Machine. The Cruise around Morro Bay is Friday May 4th from 6-8pm. Show and Shine is Saturday 8-4 PM and Sunday 8AM-12:00 PM

I will be having reverse shoulder surgery Monday July 16th, so your First Vice will be out of action for a while. Everyone have a great May and enjoy Memorial Day. See you at our next potluck on May 10th.

Jerry

CAYUCOS HISTORY

PART 6

The Cosmopolitan Hotel at the corner of Cayucos Drive and Ocean Avenue was the first lodging place in Cayucos built in 1875 at a cost of $4,000. The proprietors, Morganti and Brignoli, declared in an advertisement that they had taken “great pains” to make the hotel equal to any in San Luis Obispo County. In 1879, Batista Morganti added a 50’ x 24’ hall to the rear of the building. This structure burned down in the disastrous fire of September 8, 1893. Morganti died at the age of 56 in December of 1881 as a result of a fight with Tom Righetti.

On November 20, 1880, George Stone, who had been the postmaster and innkeeper at Old Creek until the post office was moved to Cayucos in January, 1889, officially opened the Exchange Hotel at the northeast corner of Ocean Avenue and D Street. The next year he added a large livery stable, tank house, and a windmill. The facility proved so popular that an extension was added on the D Street side.

The Exchange Hotel was celebrated because it had the largest hall in Cayucos and, during the early years of the nineteenth century, motion pictures were shown in it. However, because the community lacked electricity until the 1920s, the power for the projector was supplied from generators of early day motor vehicles.
