President Adrian Hurtado

Happy August.

The July luncheon included a typical summer fare of hamburgers, hot dogs, beans, and all the goodies that make summer fun. August will be Island Attire month, so be sure to wear something that you might wear to Hawaii or any other island. Men, no hula skirts.

Elizabeth McMeans brought her keyboards and very melodic voice to the luncheon to provide some patriotic songs and golden oldies. This month, Nathan Clay returns for an encore engagement.

Sonia DiCicco was not present to collect the $325 attendance prize when her name was drawn. This month the pot grows to $350. Shirley Mednick walked away with the 50-50 prize of $79. Congratulations Shirley.

Welcome to new members Mary Lee Loughman and Claudia Barnes. I believe that makes about eight new members since May.

August is a slow month in Cayucos with not much going on. The only thing I found listed on the Calendar of Events is the Friday Farmers' Market from 10:00 AM - 12:30 PM on Friday at the corner of Ocean Avenue and D Street.

We are still looking for a handy-type person who is willing to help around the center once in a while. It would be ON CALL and very seldom. If you like to tinker and are interested, call the Center and let Karen Rivas know.

Have a great month and see you August 8 in the Vets tent at 12:00 noon.

A Message from Your Vice-President
Jerry Dobyms

Welcome to August everyone. The weather in Cayucos has been great. Not too hot and not too cool. We have the best weather in the country in my opinion. The 4th of July parade went well. Thanks to Tom Jasper for doing a fantastic job of putting the slide show together. A big thanks to all our marshals and all the other Lions that helped put on the parade.

I want to thank the kitchen crew, servers, and bartenders for another great potluck. The hamburgers and hot dogs were delicious. Also, we had a lot of good side dishes. There were also some really good desserts.

Our entertainment was Elizabeth McMeans. She sang some patriotic songs and played the keyboard. We also sang along with her on some familiar tunes.

A Little Humor

Chocolate Covered Peanuts

A tour bus driver is driving with a bus load of seniors down a highway when he is tapped on his shoulder by one of the ladies. She offered him a handful of peanuts, which he gratefully munched. After about 15 minutes, she tapped him on his shoulder again and she handed him another handful of peanuts. She repeated this gesture about five more times. When she is about to hand him another batch again, he asked the lady, "Why don't you eat the peanuts yourself?" "We cannot chew them because we have no teeth," she replied. The puzzled driver asked, "Why do you buy them?" The lady replied, "We just love the chocolate around them."

CAYUCOS HISTORY

PART 9

THE GREAT BANK ROBBERY

The existence of a bank in early Cayucos was vital to commercial development. The first bank was moved from its original location to the east side of Ocean Avenue near Cayucos Drive and today is a jewelry store. Its architectural quaintness may help to visualize the following scenario which reads like a melodrama.

The Great Cayucos Bank Robbery took place on August 30, 1892. Its prelude involved a one armed constable, Peter Banks, who was in search of a horse thief by the name of Dunn. The constable found Dunn in a Paso Robles lumber yard, where Dunn had just sold the stolen mare for $65, and arrested the outlaw.

Then the plot thickens. Along the way back to San Luis Obispo, Dunn convinced Banks that he could put him onto something far bigger than capturing a horse thief. He told of three men who planned bank robberies at Port Harford, Santa Margarita, and Cayucos. Dunn had Banks repeat his revelation to Sheriff O'Neill, who agreed to free Dunn if the story proved true.

Next month, the rest of the story...
