From the Desk of President Adrian Hurtado

September is a special month for the Cayucos Seniors Club. Forty-five years ago, on September 1, 1973, the Club received its charter and has expanded to the community outreach organization that it is today. Congratulations to all of our past and current members!

August was island attire month and Janet Arnold, our guest chef, prepared a wonderful tropical pulled pork and coconut rice in keeping with the theme. Casa de Flores added a giant macaroni and cheese with bacon casserole that proved to be a success.

Nathan Clay provided the entertainment and I was highly impressed with the range of his voice. I have never heard anyone do Moody Blues songs as well as he did except for the actual Moody Blues.

Pat Moon rarely misses the luncheons, but she was not present for this one to collect the $350 attendance prize when her name was drawn. This month the pot grows to $375. Louise Topper, who has only been a member for about a year, won her second 50-50 prize. This time it was $85. Congratulations Louise!

Welcome to new members Shirley Mednick, Maggie Johnson, and Glenda Jean Boatman. Remember, people do not have to live in Cayucos to become members.

The nominations of officers for the next year was presented by Parliamentarian Betsy Watts and elections will be held in September. The names are as follows:

President	Adrian Hurtado
1st VP	Jerry Dobyms
2nd VP	Janet Arnold
Secretary	Sherry Shepard
Treasurer	Deborah Way

Have a great month and see you September 12 in the Vets tent at 12:00 noon.

AdrianA Message from Your Vice-President
Jerry Dobyms

Here we are in September. Kids should be back to school by now as many start in August. We had a pleasant August in our little town. The weather was very mild as we did not get too warm or too cool. This month usually gives us some of the best weather of the year and continues into October.

I want to thank Janet Arnold for the great tropical pork roast. It was delicious. Thanks to our kitchen crew, servers, and bartenders for another great potluck.

Our entertainment was Nathan Clay. He has a great voice and we enjoyed him very much. His songs by the Moody Blues and Righteous Brothers were great and brought back a lot of memories. Our entertainment this month will be Andy Scott. Andy is a new performer to our potlucks.

I hope everyone has a great September, and come to our next potluck on Wednesday, September 12th.

A Little Humor

A 78-year-old man is having a drink in a bar. Suddenly a gorgeous woman enters and sits down a few seats away. The woman is so attractive that he just cannot take his eyes off her. After a short while, the woman notices him staring, and approaches him.

Before the man has time to apologize, the woman looks him deep in the eyes and says to him in a sultry tone, "I will do anything you would like. Anything you can imagine in your wildest dreams, and it does not matter how extreme or unusual it is, I am game. I want $100, and there is a condition.

Completely stunned by the sudden turn of events, the man asks her what her condition is. "You have to tell me what you want me to do in just three words."

The man takes a moment to consider the offer from the beautiful woman. He whips out his wallet and puts $100 in her hand. He then looks her square in the eyes, and says slowly and clearly, "Paint my garage."

Our needs change as we get older, and we tend to look for bargains.

CAYUCOS HISTORY

PART 10

August 30th was “Butter Day” in Cayucos and more than $3,000 would be in the Cayucos Bank vault. Sheriff O’Neill arranged for J.J. Simmler, cashier for the bank, to empty the vault of cash and gold and transfer these to James Cass’s safe at Cayucos Landing for safekeeping.

The bandits’ plan was to take Simmler by force from his home to the bank where he would be coerced to open the safe. Simmler, fearful for his life declined to participate in the trap. Instead, the Sheriff arranged for Bill Waterman to substitute. Meanwhile, the citizens of Cayucos were warned to take cover because a shooting was conjectured that night.

The bank robbers arrived in town about midnight wearing gunny sack masks over their heads. Constable Banks was waiting in the bank for them. The robbers appeared on schedule with the constrained Bill Waterman, who pretended to open the safe.

At that moment, Banks and a deputy jumped out from behind a door and the shooting began. One bandit was fatally wounded and died the next day, but two fled to the hills only to be captured some years later, one in San Diego and the other in Sacramento. Both were tried and sentenced to ten years in prison.
