A Message from your President Adrian Hurtado

Happy March and Vernal Equinox. March 20th is the first day of spring. The much-needed rain has been great, but it's time to be a beach town again.

The February menu consisted of a very tasty pasta and meatball dish. Casa de Flores provided a large Caesar salad that went perfectly with the meal. They also brought strawberry cake for dessert.

Two more new members were added to our ranks. Welcome to Kate and Steve "Lars" Larson. Lars is also one of our senior drivers.

If your dues for 2019 have not been paid, you can only read this article if you borrow a newsletter from a paid member. You will not receive it, or have your name placed in the monthly attendance drawing unless your dues have been paid.

Borah's Awards went out of business, but we now have an account with Trophy Hunters in SLO to provide lifetime nametags and other awards.

Speaking of awards, the Past Presidents and Volunteer luncheon is Thursday, May 23 at noon. If you do not receive an invitation, you can still attend for $15. Prime rib is the planned entre again this year. We have asked Judith and the Jazz Krewe to perform.

Besides the first day of Spring, the only holiday in March is St. Patrick's Day. That means our March fare will be corned beef and cabbage. Sounds great.

Have a great month and see you March 13 in the Vet's Hall Tent at 12:00noon. Adrian

A Message from your Vice President Jerald Dobyns

Here we are in March. Time for St. Patrick's Day and the Sea Glass Festival on March 9th and 10th. There will be plenty to see and do at the festival. In addition to the sea glass items, you can listen to music and eat some good food.

We had Judith & the Jazz Krewe perform for us last month. They were great as a lot of the ladies danced and I had a dance with my love Claudia. They will perform for us again at the Past Presents and Volunteer luncheon on May. This month Dave Molloy will provide the entertainment.

I would like to thank Leonard and the rest of the kitchen crew for great spaghetti and meat balls. What a treat, I could have that more often. It seems that everyone enjoyed it. Also, a big thanks to the servers and bartenders Karen Rivas and Janet Arnold.

Terry Johnson won the 50/50 drawing of $84. Congratulations Terry. Bill Rogers' name was called for the attendance drawing, but he was not present. Sorry Bill. This month's attendance drawing will be $175.

I will see you all at this month potluck and general meeting on Wednesday, March 13. Have a great March. Jerry
