A Message from your President Adrian Hurtado

May is upon us, with the April showers bringing an abundance of May flowers. What a great place to be.

The April menu consisted of tasty ham and cheesy potatoes. This has become a traditional Easter fare and was well received. Casa de Flores provided a wonderful mac and cheese and Easter decorated cupcakes. This month the main course will be chili verde with rice on the side.

Two new members were added at the lunch meeting. Welcome to Barbara Hamilton and Robin Inouye.

The Past Presidents and Volunteer lunch is May 23 at 12:00noon. Invitees may bring one guest each. Others may attend for $15 for a prime rib luncheon. Judith and the Jazz Krewe will perform. We must have your names submitted by May 18, as I have to notify the caterer.

The annual fire safety notice is out. Lots must have brush or tall grasses cut down and removed by May 31. The same goes for trash, wood or other combustibles. If you received a notice in the mail, please be sure to comply to avoid a fine.

May events include:

- 1 – May Day
- 4 – Kentucky Derby
- 5 – Cayucos Antique Street Faire
- 11 – 16th Annual Miracle Mile for Kids
- 12 - Mother's Day
- 18 - Armed Forces Day
- 27 - Memorial Day
- 27 - Lost at Sea Memorial at the Pier

Have a great month and see you May 8th in the Vet's Tent at 12:00 noon. Adrian

A Message from your 2nd Vice President Janet Arnold

It is hard to believe we are one quarter through the year 2019. Many special events have happened this year, including the wedding of Jerry Dobyons to Claudia Barnes. Congratulations to the newlyweds who are honeymooning in Hawaii. The entire Senior membership wishes you many years of happiness together.

Thanks to Leonard and the kitchen crew and servers for the ham and cheesy potatoes. Also, thanks to Casa de Flores for the delicious mac and cheese. Kudos to your chef! Special thanks to all the attendees who shared their wonderful side dishes to compliment the entire. Desserts as usual were scrumptious.

Anne Abler and the Crustacea Jazz Band entertained us with their fabulous music. Many seniors were brought to their feet to dance and participate in the Umbrella Dance. Fun for all! Next month we will be entertained by Andy Scott who had a lot of dancers up and moving the last time he performed for us. Wear your dancing shoes and be ready to move to the groove.

The attendance drawing was won by our 50/50 chairman Bob Bretz who went home $200 richer. Hope you shared some of those winnings with your lovely wife Margaret Ann. The 50/50 drawing was won by Carla Stollmeyer. Carla went home with a whopping $97. Congratulations to you both.

Next month we will be celebrating Cinco de Mayo and the menu will consist of chili verde, rice and beans. The meal will be prepared in the authentic fashion by our guest cook, Miguel Arroyo. Many of you know Miguel as he is our set up and clean up person. Thanks for agreeing to cook for the group, Miguel.

As your Second Vice President, I enjoyed filling in for Jerry and writing this article. I look forward to seeing a big turnout at our next luncheon on May 8th. Don your serape and sombrero and join us for an entertaining afternoon. Janet
