A Message from your President Adrian Hurtado

August is here and it is time for our annual Cayucos Seniors Club Executive Board elections. The slate of would-be officers was read last month by parliamentarian Betsy Watts, but nominations are open until just before the vote taken at this month's luncheon. If you are interested in one of the offices, please make it known.

The July menu featured our annual hamburger and hot dog fest. It went over so well; we ran out of hamburgers before I passed through the line. Casa de Flores' chef Trevor provided a great potato salad that went with the fare, and baker Judy made a wonderful cheesecake. This month is a luau theme and Janet Arnold will feature her kalua pulled pork and coconut rice.

We added three new members in June. Welcome to Phil Rector and Gilbert and Vicki Bustos.

A recent update on the Vets Hall is that, pending approval of two grant applications, they hope to start construction in summer of 2020 with a possible completion of summer 2021. In the meantime, we will enjoy the tent until it comes down.

The only special event I could find in August besides the Seniors election was Jean's and my 49th anniversary on the 7th.

September is the 46th anniversary of the Cayucos Seniors club. I anticipate our usual Costco cake to celebrate.

Have a great month and see you August 14th.
Adrian

A Message from your Vice President Jerald Dobyns

Here we are in August. Starting now into October and sometimes into November is some of the best weather on the Central Coast. We usually get lots of sunny and warm days.

Tim Jackson was our entertainer last month. He did a great job singing some oldies we all liked. This month Jim Conroy and Bruce Beck will perform for us. They always play great tunes.

Hot dogs and hamburgers were served for lunch. As so many people were in attendance and most liked hamburgers, we ran a little short. Both were delicious and the sides were great. This is always a popular potluck.

I want to thank the kitchen crew, servers and bartenders Karen Rivas and Janet Arnold and all who brought side dishes. What a nice way to celebrate July 4th.

Ann Fitzgerald won the 50/50 drawing of $108. Congratulations Ann. Hector Montenegro's name was pulled for the attendance drawing of $100. He was not in attendance. Sorry Hector. Wow, the 50/50 drawing was higher than the attendance amount.

Hope to see everyone for this month potluck on Wednesday, August. 14.

Jerry
